Crawney Road Nundle NSW

An exceptional statement of quality and history aligned with 200 hectares of some of the most picturesque and productive country you will find.

"Wombramurra Homestead" is a truly rare historic rural hideaway nestled in the foothills of the Great Dividing Range in North-Western NSW.

Situated 2 kilometres from the historic Gold Rush village of Nundle, the property en-captures stunning rural vista's in a private and peaceful setting just 4 hours drive north of Sydney.

Giant Elm trees in excess of 100 years old frame the entrance to the magnificent homestead and vast gardens which feature many original beds and dry stone walls amongst an array of beautiful trees, flowers and roses
